

Bo and Reatha Seger

Obituary

Edgar Paul "Bo" Seger, son of Max and Maye McVay Seger, one of eleven children, was born on October 27, 1912, in Stuart, Nebraska. Bo received his education at St. Boniface School in Stuart and served in the United States Navy for four years during World War II. He married Reatha Schnepf in Rock Port, Missouri and they made their home in Shenandoah.

While in Shenandoah he was owner and operator of Elm Cleaners from 1952 through 1974 when he retired. He was a past member of Shenandoah American Legion Post #88 and a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church. Bo was a Nebraska Cornhusker fan and enjoyed fishing and hunting.

He was preceded in death by his parents, six brothers, three sisters and his wife Reatha.

Bo is survived by his two daughters, Glenda Walling and her husband Robert of Princeton Junction, N.J.; and Shirley Chullino and her husband Terry of Council Bluffs, Iowa; four grandchildren, Kendra, Skip, Paulette and Beau; six great-grandchildren, a sister Ruth Seger of Stuart, numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.
