

Celebration of Life Service from Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, Iowa
Wednesday ~ September 11, 2019
10:00 a.m.

Words of Comfort
Father Raphael Assamah

Guest Register ~ Bernadette Stanbrough

Songs of Comfort
"I Can Only Imagine" ~ Mercy Me
"Be Free" ~ Loggins & Messina
"Circle of Life" ~ Elton John

Honorary Urn Bearers
Joe Worthington
Mike Laughlin
Gary Whipple
Bob Stanbrough
Tim Mathis
Jeff Mathis
Dan Anderson
Mike Dippel

Place of Rest
Rose Hill Cemetery
Shenandoah, Iowa

Memorials
Shenandoah Community Food Pantry
Shenandoah Pregnancy and Resource Center

On February 16, 1954, Jarrett Ray Harms was born to Glenn E. and Eleanor (Wright) Harms in Shenandoah, Iowa. His youth was spent in Shenandoah from which many a story arose about the fun and sports games played by the whole neighborhood. In 1972 he graduated from Shenandoah Community High School.

On November 21, 1974 he was joined in marriage to Jacqueline M. Laughlin. They were blessed by two children Jason R. Harms and Amanda M. (Harms) Wiltz. Jarrett worked at Tyler Bottling Co, MidContinent Bottling Co, Eaton Corporation and spent the last 25 years working faithfully at Pella Rolscreen Co achieving recognition for his continuous work record. He treasured the relationships he had with his co-workers.

Jarrett was a faithful and loyal man who enjoyed his family and friends. Fishing trips to Canada and hunting in the Loess Hills with friends and family were cherished memories of his and the source of many stories. He also loved gardening and working in the yard creating beautiful flower beds and landscapes. He loved nature. He also appreciated good music and was often found listening to one of his favorite bands. Most of all he enjoyed spending time with his family and following their activities. He might have been known to "brag" a little bit about his grandchildren. He was a wonderful, devoted husband, father, grandpa, son, brother and friend and he will be sorely missed.

Jarrett was preceded in death by his father Glenn E Harms and mother Eleanor I. Harms. Left with many cherished memories are his wife Jacqueline "Jackie" Harms, son Jason Harms and daughter-in-law Michelle, daughter Amanda "Mandi" Wiltz and son-in-law Chad, sister Marla Worthington and brother-in-law Joe, four grandchildren Gabriella Harms, Isabella Harms, Jada Wiltz, and Jackson Wiltz as well as many friends and family members. We are comforted that he is now at peace in Christ in his Father's loving arms.

But, as it is written,

*“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the heart of man imagined,
what God has prepared for those who love Him”*

1 Corinthians 2:9

Following the services at the graveside, please join the family for a time of lunch and fellowship at the St. Mary's Catholic Church Hall.

Hackett
Livingston
FUNERAL HOME

Going Home