

Obituary

Carole Lea Weaver, daughter of Jack and Mary Eaton Kraschel was born on October 19, 1924, in Shenandoah, Iowa. She lived with her grandparents as well as her uncle and aunt Charles and Leah Cox of Farragut for many of her young years. She attended country school and graduated from Shenandoah High School with the class of 1942. On June 14, 1947, she was united in marriage to John Weaver. Carole was an avid golfer and an accomplished horsewoman, riding and showing her quarter horse in many area horse shows. She took great pride and pleasure in raising registered Great Dane dogs, being one of only a few breeders in the Omaha and Southwest Iowa area. Carole was a charter member of the Child Study Club and a member of the Shenandoah Presbyterian Church where she taught bible school for several years. Her main priority and interests were her family.

Carole was preceded in death by her parents and a son, John Otis Weaver Jr. She is survived by her husband Dr. John Weaver, sons and daughters-in-laws, Jim and Jeanne Anne Weaver of Elkhorn, Nebraska, Joe and Stephanie Weaver of Omaha, Nebraska, sisters Kathy Harvey of Sidney, Iowa, and Jacqueline Faust of Marion, Ohio, a cousin Marcy Funk of Kansas City, Missouri, three grandchildren Nick Weaver and his wife Heidi, Allison Weaver and Kara Weaver, all of Omaha, many nieces and nephews and many friends.

Memorials may be directed to the Shenandoah Hospice.

Following the services, everyone is cordially invited to Presbyterian Church for a time of fellowship and refreshments with the family.
