The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Lloyd M. Brush

Lloyd Morse Brush, the son of Cloyd M. and Stella (Lavelly) Brush, was born October 10, 1911, in Shenandoah, IA, and passed away January 25, 2001, in Omaha, NE.

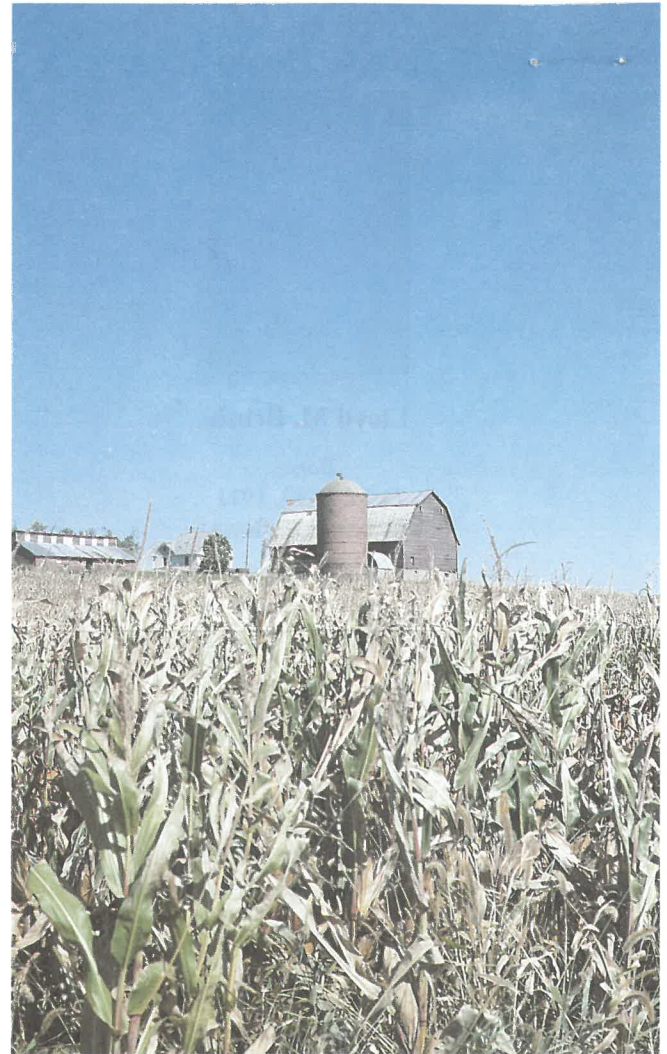

Growing up in the Shenandoah area Lloyd received his education in the Shenandoah school system graduating from Shenandoah High School in 1931. On December 24, 1932, Lloyd was united in marriage to Florence Rydberg in Rock Port, MO, and to this union, four daughters, Phyllis Jean, twins, Elaine and Lorraine, and Kathy were born. After the death of their daughter Elaine, they raised her son Frank O'Neil. Lloyd was a dairy farmer during his early working years and then farmed and operated a chain saw business in the Summit area south of Shenandoah. Retiring in 1974, they moved to Shenandoah.

He was a former member of the Summit Methodist Church and transferred his membership to the Shenandoah United Methodist Church when they moved to town. Lloyd and Florence loved to spend their winters in Arizona. He enjoyed fixing and building things, and especially being with his family.

Preceding Lloyd in death were his parents; and infant daughter, Phyllis Jean; daughter, Elaine Long; son-in-law, Bill Nunemann; and stepfather-in-law, George Lewis.

Survivors include his wife, Florence of Shenandoah, daughters, Lorraine Nunemann of Des Moines, IA and Kathy King of Omaha, NE; grandson, raised in the home, Frank O'Neil and his wife, Carol, of Shenandoah; sister, Marjorie Henning and husband, Russell, of Coin, IA; 8 other grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren; 7 great-great grandchildren plus several nieces and nephews.
