The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Florence Brush

Florence Alma Elizabeth Brush, the daughter of Anton and Alma (Johnson) Rydberg, was born September 18, 1911, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away November 25, 2003, in Shenandoah.

Florence has lived in and around Shenandoah her entire life. She attended the Shenandoah schools graduating from high school in 1930. On December 24, 1932, Florence was united in marriage to Lloyd Brush and to this union Phyllis, Elaine, Lorraine, and Kathy was born. They farmed for many years, retiring in 1974 and moved to Shenandoah. While living on their farm south of Shenandoah, she was a member of the Summit United Methodist Church, the WSCS, and the Neighborhood Club. After moving to Shenandoah, Florence transferred her membership to the First United Methodist Church in Shenandoah and joined the United Methodist Women.

Preceding Florence in death were her parents, husband, infant daughter, Phyllis, daughter, Elaine Long, grandson, John Nunemann, son-in-law, Bill Nunemann, and stepfather, George Lewis.

Survivors include her daughters, Lorraine Nunemann of Apache Junction, Arizona and Kathy Watts and husband, Jerry, of Kearney, Nebraska; grandchildren, Frank O'Neil (who was raised by Florence and Lloyd) and friend Marsha Flanagan of Shenandoah, Bob and Dave Nunemann of Des Moines, Iowa, Debbie Zahm of Atlanta, Georgia, Jeff, Jan, and Tony King of Omaha, Nebraska, Paula Harr of Burlington, Iowa. Also surviving are sister-in-law, Marjorie Henning and husband, Russ, of Coin, Iowa; granddaughter-in-law, Carol O'Neil, of Shenandoah; 16 great grandchildren; 9 great-great grandchildren plus several nieces and nephews.
