Obituary

Craig Junior Almquist, the son of Craig Almquist and Sandi Kuester, was born at Shenandoah, Iowa on October 25, 1984 and passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, November 24, 2004 at Shenandoah Medical Center in Shenandoah, Iowa. C.J. lived all his life in and around the Shenandoah area. He was a 2003 graduate of Shenandoah High School. While in school he worked for Earl May Seed and Nursery Company and Orschlen Farm Supply, later working for the City of Shenandoah at Rose Hill Cemetery which he enjoyed very much. C.J. enjoyed life especially his family. When he was young, he loved to sing to his sister. He loved riding four wheelers, dirt bikes, jet skis, watching movies and feeding the horses with his Mom, playing with his Play Station II, and spending time with his Mom, Dad, sister and his friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother Beverly Almquist. Survivors include his parents, Craig Almquist and Sandi Kuester of rural Shenandoah; a sister Nicole Kuester of Shenandoah; grandfather, Phil Almquist of Shenandoah; grandmother Joyce Noah of Great Bend, Kansas and grandfather Merrill Burr of Shenandoah; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.
