The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Darrel D. Ketcham

Darrel Dwight Ketcham, son of Mark M. and Myrtle (Stambaugh) Ketcham, was born August 22, 1917, in rural Shenandoah, IA, and passed away January 11, 2001, in Clarinda, IA.

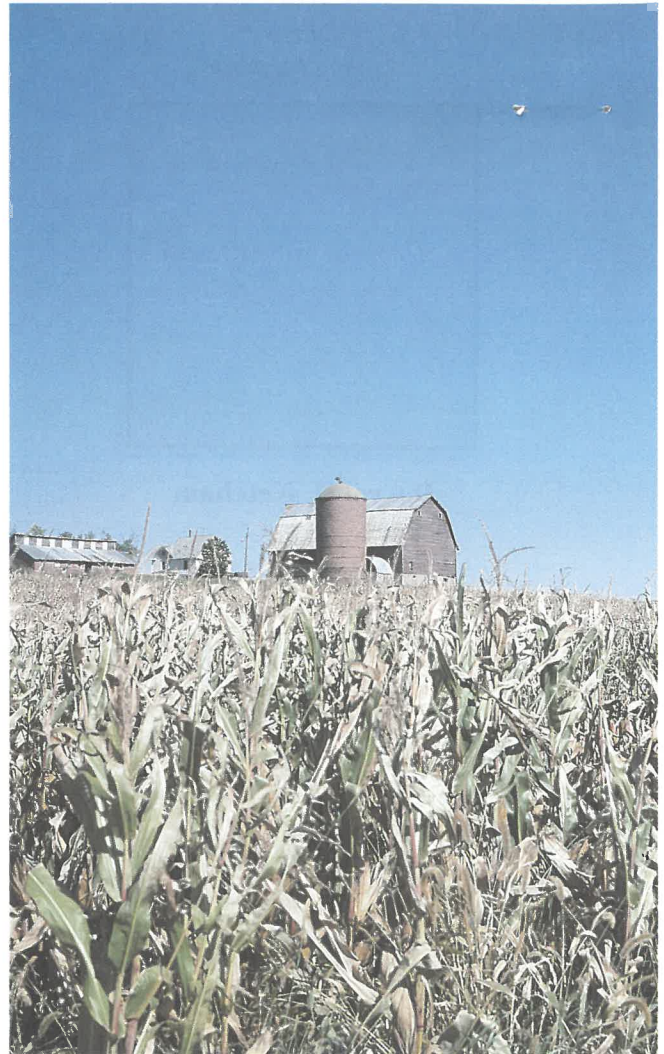

Growing up in the Shenandoah area, Darrel received his education in the Shenandoah school system, graduating from high school in 1935. After high school he attended one year at Business College in Omaha, NE. He was needed on the family farm so left school to come home to help his father.

After three years on the family farm, he moved to the Norwich, IA area where he spent his life farming and raising livestock until his health no longer permitted him to do so. He was a resident of the Westridge Care Center in Clarinda for the past four years. Being a member of the Norwich United Methodist Church, Darrel served as Chairman of the Board, Lay Leader and held other offices and served on various other committees. He served as a Tarkio Township trustee and served as a Tarkio Township rural school board director. Darrel was a 4-H leader and a Page County Fair Board member and past president of Page County Farm Bureau. He was a member of Tri Centum Masonic Lodge #300, AF & AM and De Molay in Shenandoah. Darrel enjoyed sports, playing cards, and most of all, his family.

Preceding Darrel in death were his parents and two brothers, Ermal and Merrill Ketcham.

Survivors include his wife, Kathryn Ketcham, of Shenandoah; sons, Ken Ketcham and wife, Pat, of Kansas City, MO, and Dennis Ketcham and wife, Raenell, of Pierre, S D; daughter, Karen Wright and husband, Bob, of Shenandoah; son, Bruce Ketcham and wife, Sara, of Shenandoah; and daughter, Kim Leininger and husband John, of Essex, IA; 19 grandchildren; and 14 great grandchildren.
