Betty A. Edwards

Betty Ann Edwards, daughter of Clyde Mitchell and Sylvia Marie (Roberts) Chancey, was born on December 13, 1929 near Tarkio, Missouri on the family farm. She entered into eternal rest at the age of 82, on Saturday, November 17, 2012 at the Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah.

Her early years were spent growing up on a farm near Imogene, Iowa. She attended country school near Imogene and graduated from Farragut High School with the Class of 1947.

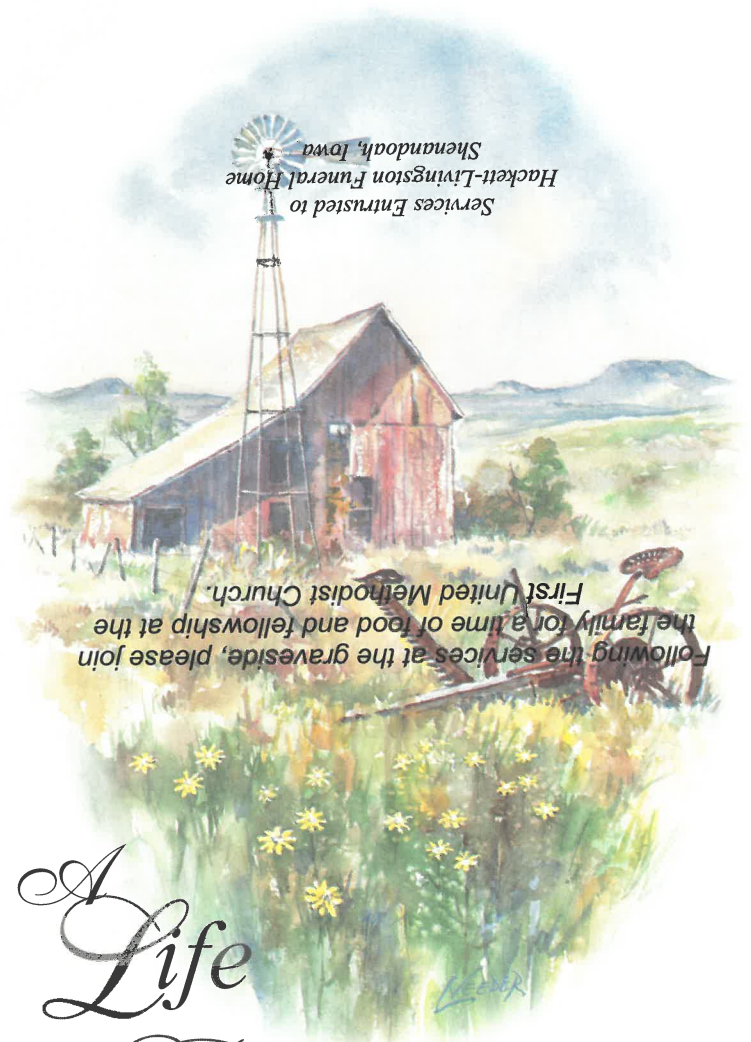

On August 29, 1954 Betty was united in marriage to Charles Edwards at the Shenandoah United Methodist Church with the Rev. Crandall presiding. Everyone recalls what a hot day that was! To this union two children were born, Rhonda and Rich.

A longtime resident of Shenandoah, Betty met many friends and customers working as a teller at the Security Bank through the early 1990's. She also worked at Henry Field's and Kitchen Klat-ter.

A lifelong member of the First United Methodist Church in Shenandoah, Betty was active in the church circles. She was also member of the Red Hat Ladies organization and volunteered at the Shenandoah Medical Center.

She loved spending weekends camping (she especially enjoyed the campfires) and visiting relatives. Betty enjoyed family gatherings of all kinds, especially Thanksgiving and Christmas. In retirement, Betty and Charles took many bus trips, traveling to much of the United States and Canada. She liked to collect tea cup souvenirs of her travels. She also collected ceramic and porcelain eggs.

Preceding Betty in death were her parents, Clyde and Sylvia Chancey. Survivors include her loving husband of 58 years, Charles Edwards of Shenandoah, IA; two children, Rhonda Navarro of Cape Coral, FL and Rich Edwards of Meridian ID; seven grandchildren; sister, Margaret Henderson of Manhattan, KS; other relatives and many friends.
