The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Janie Edwards

Janie Edwards, the daughter of George and Lucinda (Murr) Carlton, was born May 11, 1908, in Mountain Grove, Missouri and passed away February 6, 2001, at Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Janie grew up in the Mountain Grove, MO area and received her education in surrounding country schools. On January 23, 1927, she was united in marriage to Argust C. Edwards at Mountain Grove, and to this union, a son, Charles C. Edwards and daughters, Nellie and Marjorie were born. Janie took great care of her family as she enjoyed sewing, canning, cooking, making quilts, and raising her family. Her family especially remembers coming home to the smell of fresh baked bread. She was a long time member of the Free Will Baptist Church in Mountain Grove.

Preceding Janie in death were her parents; husband, Argust; sisters, Clara Morton, and Ruth Mayfield; brother, Lyle Ratterree; and grandson, Ricky Sorenson.

Survivors include her son, Charles C. Edwards and wife, Betty, of Shenandoah; daughter, Nellie J. Edwards of Shenandoah; daughter, Marjorie R. Sorenson and husband, William, of Council Bluffs, IA; brother, John A. Murr and wife, Betty, of San Antonio, Texas; five grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild.
