The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Naomi Bloom

Aryl Naomi Bloom, age 82, the daughter of John W. and Anna Aryl (Miller) Foster was born May 26, 1923, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away January 31, 2006, in Laredo, Texas, at the Laredo Medical Center, while wintering in Zapata, Texas.

Attending school in Shenandoah, Naomi graduated with the class of 1942. On January 8, 1943, Naomi was united in marriage to Bill Bloom and to this marriage Linda, Mike and Dinah were born.

Naomi worked at Woolworth Department Store when she was young, but for most of her life she enjoyed providing a home for her family. She liked to play cards and work in her yard. Those who met and knew her found her to be a joy. She enjoyed being with her family and friends and spending winters in Texas with Bill and their very dear friends, Marvin and Barbara Lee from Stonewall, Louisiana. Naomi was a member of the First Christian Church in Shenandoah.

Preceding Naomi in death were her parents; daughter, Linda Gail Bloom; brother, Boyd Foster; and sisters, Opal Foster and Leona Harris.

Survivors include her husband of 63 years, Bill, currently from Wheatland, Missouri; son and daughter-in-law, Mike and Marcia Bloom of Hermitage, Missouri; daughter, Dinah Bloom of Fort Dodge, Iowa; four grandchildren, Kristi Carlson of Garden City, Kansas, Shane Bloom of Fort Dodge, Iowa, Mathew Bloom of Osceola, Missouri, and Amy Lund of Casper, Wyoming; plus seven great grandchildren. Also surviving is a sister, Mae Mobley of Shenandoah; plus several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
