Come With Me

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes
We watched her suffer
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Lois N. King, daughter of Willie N. Cox and Cora (England) Cox was born on February 27, 1916, in Liberal, Missouri. She passed away on Friday, June 25, 2004, at the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha, Nebraska at the age of 88.

When Lois was a young girl, the family moved to the Rock Port, Missouri area. They lived there for twelve years before moving to Westboro, Missouri where Lois graduated from high school in 1933. She spent most of her remaining years in and around Shenandoah, Iowa, where she worked at Mt. Arbor Nursery for over twenty years. Lois then worked at Earl May Seed and Nursery until her retirement in 1982.

Lois was an active member of the First Christian Church.

Preceding Lois in death were her parents, four sisters, one brother, and her husband Joe M. King in 1965. She is survived by her brother Bill Cox and his wife Mary of Des Moines, Iowa; sister-in-law Claire Cox of South Sioux City, Nebraska; and many nieces, nephews and friends.
