The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Donald J. "Junior" Ryan

Donald James "Junior" Ryan, age 78, the son of Donald T. and Blanche L. (Selders) Ryan was born December 14, 1927 at Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away August 15, 2006, at his home in Shenandoah.

Growing up in the Norwich, Iowa area, Don received his education in area county schools. Don joined the U. S. Army in January 1946 serving his country. After his separation from the Army Don worked in Oregon for a couple of years. He then returned to Shenandoah, where he spent the rest of his life.

Through his working years, Don worked for Mount Arbor Nurseries, L.A. Davy Trucking, for Bud Revell Trucking, Wilbur Cambier and Heartland Express. He was a member of the Eagle's Club, First Christian Church and former member of American Legion Post #88. Don enjoyed fishing, dancing and camping.

Preceding Don in death were his parents; daughter, June Ryan; brother, Jim Ryan; and sister, Louis Walters.

Survivors include his wife, Beverly Ryan of Shenandoah; his children, Sheila Barnhart of Shenandoah, Kay Kalkas and husband, Toby, of Shenandoah, son, Ron Ryan of Fairfield, Iowa, daughter, Terri Lockerby and husband, Terry of Shenandoah, and son, Gene Ryan of Shenandoah. Also surviving are his sisters and brothers-in-law, Shirley and Harry Cunningham, Joyce and Morris Wynn, and Evelyn and Dwayne Lorimor all from Shenandoah; 17 grandchildren; 24 great grandchildren; plus other relatives and friends.
