John A. Bright

John Aaron Bright, the son of James H. and Essie L (Merritt) Bright, was born October 3, 1910, on a farm in Fremont County, Iowa and passed away May 14, 2000, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

At the age of nine, John and his family moved to Shenandoah. After the eighth grade, John stayed home to help his dad and brothers farm. John spent 43 years working on the same farm. He first worked as a hired hand, then as a tenant, and finally as the owner. After he retired from farming, John moved to Texas where he lived for 18 years before moving back to Shenandoah. He was known to be a very hard worker and an avid bowler.

John was the last of eight siblings. Preceding him in death were his parents; his brothers, Walter, Earl, Louis, and Leo Bright; and his sisters, Violet Evans, Dorothy Urban, and Lottie Bright.

Survivors include his three nieces, Barbara Saunders of Council Bluffs, IA, Linda Setterburg and her husband, Robert, of Roeland, KS, Phillis Toombs and her husband, Ray, of Huntington Beach, CA; plus three great nephews and two great nieces.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they com fort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the pre sence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
