The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Robert W. Teachout

Robert Wayne Teachout, the son of George and Gladys (Kendall) Teachout, was born July 28, 1929, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away December 12, 2003, at his home in Kansas City, Missouri.

Growing up in the Shenandoah area, Bob was raised in the United Methodist Church. He served as a corporal in the United States Army during the Korean conflict with duty in Berlin and Germany. Bob farmed with his dad and brother, Don, until 1963. On January 5, 1963, he was married to Carol Friesen and moved to Kansas City where they made their home. They raised three children, Warren, David and Valerie. Bob was associated with Farmland Industries until his retirement in 1994. He was a member of the Hillside Christian Church where he served as a deacon.

Preceding Bob in death were his parents and a brother, Don Teachout.

Survivors include his former wife, Carol Cook, of Kansas City; sons, Warren Teachout of Kansas City and David Goetz and wife, Amy, of Lee's Summit, Missouri; daughter, Valerie Chastain and husband, Clay, of Athens, Tennessee. Also surviving are sisters, Georgene Stinnett of Kansas City, Ardyth Mercer of Prairie Village, Kansas, Della Staples and husband, Billy, of Shenandoah, and Karen VanTrump and husband, Arnold, of Aiken, South Carolina; sister-in-law, Barbara Teachout of Shenandoah; grandchildren, Eric and Connor Gunion, Molly and Madison Goetz; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
