Delbert D. White

Delbert Dean White, the son of Robert and Vera (Wolf) White, was born February 5, 1936, in Clarinda, Iowa, and passed away September 15, 2003, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Growing up in Shenandoah, Delbert attended school in Yorktown and Shenandoah, graduating from Shenandoah High School in 1955. Delbert started helping his dad in the nursery when he was a boy. As a young man, he worked for Earl May Seed and Nursery until he was drafted into the U. S. Army, serving from December 1958 until January 1961. On August 31, 1958, Delbert was united in marriage to Shirley Akes and to this union, Julie, Stacy and Holly were born. In 1961, Delbert started his 30 years of employment with the United States Postal Service retiring in 1991. He then joined the Shenandoah School District as a bus driver and part time at George Jay Drug Company.

Delbert was a member of the First Christian Church and former member of Shenandoah Lion's Club, where he served as president. He enjoyed fishing, motorcycling, and most recently woodworking, giving many gifts of wooden clocks, plaques, and Christmas decorations to his family and friends.

Delbert was always there to help his family and friends and often times realized someone needed help and would ask to help them before they could ask. He was not judgmental and accepted people as they were. He was known to be an organizer and taught his children good work ethics by setting examples. You could often hear him coming as he would be humming and jingling the change in his pocket. He would amuse his grandchildren by singing his favorite song to them, "Happy Trails to You".

Preceding Delbert in death were his parents and sisters, Charlene Malvern and Violet Lucille Pulliam.

Survivors include his wife, Shirley White of Shenandoah; daughters and sons-in law, Julie and Rod Graham, Stacy and Kevin Hughes and Holly and Darrell Saner, all of Shenandoah; 10 grandchildren, Traci and Brian Graham, Nichole Buick and husband, Bryan. Also, Jenny, Jessica and Joseph Hughes plus Madison, Alexis, Kensila and Mason Saner; and one great grandson, Dylan Buick. Also surviving are brothers, Robert White and wife, Bonnie, of Yuba City, California, Alex White of Oregon, and Max Pulliam and wife, Lois, of Clarinda. Survivors include sisters, Charmaine Linquist of Clarinda, Sheri Tomlin of LaVista, Nebraska, Glane Lambrecht and husband, Eldon, of Loup City, Nebraska, Myrtle Johnson and husband, William, of Tulsa Oklahoma, Audrey Johnson and husband, Don, of Clarinda; plus numerous nieces, nephews and many friends.
