Zelda Ruth (Hopkins) Terry was born October 11, 1964, in Clarinda, Iowa, the daughter of Charles McDonald and Wilma Jean (Noble) Hopkins. She entered into eternal rest on Sunday, January 19, 2025, at the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha, Nebraska, at the age of 60 years, 3 months, and 8 days with her family by her side.

Zelda spent the majority of her childhood years in Shenandoah, Iowa, with her four siblings. Later in life, Zelda was united in marriage to Jim Terry of Shenandoah, Iowa. Following their marriage, they resided in Shenandoah with their two daughters, Amanda and Amy.

Through the years, Zelda worked in the printing department at the Weekly Times and as a paraprofessional at the Shenandoah Community School District. She was an avid shopper, always on the hunt for a good bargain. She also enjoyed crafting, playing bingo, reading, and spending time with family and friends.

Preceding Zelda in death were her husband, Jim Terry; her parents, Charlie and Wilma "Jean" Hopkins; and brother, Ralph Hopkins. Left to cherish her memory are her two daughters, Amanda Hopkins and Michael Bohlin of Nashville, TN; Amy Culberson and Josh Culberson of Stratford, IA; two grandchildren Aria Culberson and Jordy Culberson of Stratford, Iowa; three sisters Lois Girouex of Shenandoah, Iowa, Linda Austin and her husband Don of Maryville, Missouri, Rose Johnson and her husband Rick of Farragut, Iowa; along with many other relatives and friends.
