

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

In Loving Memory
Debbie Monahan

Deborah "Debbie" Marie (Tolliver) Monahan, daughter of Melvin Truman and Kathleen (Loney) Tolliver was born on December 27, 1950 at Dunlap, Iowa, one of eleven children. She entered into eternal rest on Thursday morning, August 8, 2019 at the Shenandoah Medical Center at the age of 68 years, 7 months, 12 days.

Her early life was spent growing up in the Woodbine, Iowa area. She attended the Woodbine Community Schools, graduating from Woodbine High School with the Class of 1969.

On October 3, 1969, Debbie was united in marriage to the love of her life, David Edward Monahan at Woodbine, Iowa. Following their marriage they made their home in Woodbine before moving to Shenandoah in 1973. To this union, one daughter, Trina, was born.

Debbie was gifted with a natural artistic ability that was put to good use working as a self-employed painter and wall paper hanger. Through the years, she was able to help brighten and improve the living spaces for many homeowners in Shenandoah and the surrounding communities from 1979 until retiring in 2004.

Following retirement, Debbie was able to enjoy more of the things she enjoyed such as gardening, working in her flower gardens and antiques. She loved animals, especially cats, but most of all she enjoyed spending time with her husband and family. She was a member of the Shenandoah Emmanuel Lutheran Church and was active with People For Paws.

Preceding Debbie in death were her parents; brother, Jay Tolliver; sister-in-law, Gayle Tolliver; and a nephew, Jason Tolliver. Left to cherish her memory are her beloved husband of nearly 50 years, David Monahan of the home; daughter, Trina Baldwin and her husband, Bruce and their children, Avery and Erin, all of Shenandoah; nine siblings, Linda Tolliver of Arizona, John Tolliver and wife Zelmea of Surprise, AZ, Gary Tolliver and wife Linda of Seattle, WA, Cheryl Peterson of Omaha, NE, Harry Tolliver and wife Sherri of Omaha, NE, Chris Hatterman of Woodbine, IA, Sandy Larson of Harlan, IA, Allen Tolliver and wife Ruth of Omaha, NE and Cindy Ames and husband Mike of Shenandoah; numerous nieces and nephews; other relatives and many friends.
