

Celebration of Life Service

Barbara "Bobbie" Ann Ginger

Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, Iowa
Monday, March 6, 2017
Eleven O'Clock a.m.

Celebrant
Mother Holly Scherff

Casket Bearers
Tony Ginger Jack Ginger
Nick Ginger Courtney Harvey
Tebbe Ginger Nick Harvey

Organist
Mary Beth Gowing

Soloist
Joe Stockton
"I Only Have Eyes For You"

Songs of Comfort
"Wind Beneath My Wings" Bette Midler
Theme from "Close Encounters of the Third Kind"

Register Book
Rita Hurst Judy Nelson

Interment
Rose Hill Cemetery
Shenandoah, Iowa

Barbara Ann "Bobbie" Ginger the daughter of Ira "Mose" Cleaveland and Ruthe Ingram Cleaveland was born in Shenandoah, Iowa on July 3, 1933 and entered into rest on March 1, 2017 at Shenandoah, Iowa at the age of 83.

Bobbie grew up in Shenandoah graduating with the class of 1951. While in high school she was a cheerleader, member of girls glee, pep club (she was president of the club her senior year), mix chorus, Shen-

Hi-Can the school newspaper, the Y-Teens, and played intramural basketball.

On February 14, 1954 she was united in marriage to Robert Ginger at the St. John's Episcopal Church in Shenandoah. After their marriage they lived in Lincoln, Nebraska where Bob was stationed with the Air Force. After Bob was honorably discharged they moved back to Shenandoah for a short time, later moving to Independence, Missouri for seven years, then to St. Joseph, Missouri for three and a half years, moving back to Shenandoah in 1973 where she would remain the rest of her life. Barbara was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church in Shenandoah.

Bobbie enjoyed bowling; enjoyed to travel especially to the Southwest and western parts of the United States; enjoyed reading and watching movies of all kinds; was a member of the Southwest Iowa Theater Group. Most of all she loved her family and cherished the holidays when they all could get together. Bobbie worked for many years for Security Bank in Shenandoah before her retirement. She was known as a loving and generous person and will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers Ray and Loran; a sister Eileene Cook. She leaves behind to cherish her memory; husband Robert "Bob" Ginger, two sons, Scott Ginger and wife Sandra of Las Vegas, Nevada; Tracey Ginger and wife Sharon of Papillion, Nebraska; five grandchildren, Tony Ginger and wife Molli, Andy Ginger, Courtney Harvey and husband Nick, Jack Ginger and Nicholas Ginger; great grandchildren, Carter and Kaylin; two nieces Candi Cook and husband Bill Semmons of Aurora, Colorado; and Stephanie Stockton and husband Joe of Warrensburg, Missouri; other relatives and a host of friends.

My Peace is like a shaft of golden Light shining on you continuously. During days of bright sunshine, it may blend in with your surroundings. On darker days, My Peace stands out in sharp contrast to your circumstances. See times of darkness as opportunities for My Light to shine in transcendent splendor. I am training you to practice Peace that overpowers darkness. Collaborate with Me in this training. Do not grow weary and lose heart.
John 1:4-5 amp; Hebrews 12:3

Please join the family at the Greater Shenandoah Museum Wabonsie Room for a time of lunch and fellowship, following the service at the cemetery.

Please silence your cell phones prior to service.

Services entrusted to
Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, IA
www.hackettlivingston.com

Printed in the USA No. 6682L

