The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Kelly P. Whitehill

Kelly Paul Whitehill, the son of Duane E. and Gwyneth A. (Denney) Whitehill, was born January 25, 1960, in Shenandoah, IA and passed away October 14, 2000, Omaha, NE.

Kelly grew up in the rural Shenandoah area attending the Shenandoah school system and graduating from high school in 1978. During high school Kelly enjoyed being part of the football team and the wrestling squad. He was also a former member of the Page County 4-H and Davis Rodgers FFA Chapter. After high school, Kelly's working career involved farming, working for Eaton Manufacturing and most recently working as a carpenter for Wick Building Systems in Nebraska City, NE. Kelly enjoyed riding his Harley Davidson Motorcycle, hunting and fishing.

Preceding Kelly in death were his grandparents, Annie, Lee and Opal Whitehill, and Paul and Esther Denney; four uncles; two aunts; and two cousins.

Survivors include his two sons, Kalon and Kade Whitehill of Coin, IA; parents; Duane and Gwyn Whitehill of Shenandoah; sister, Jolene Arend and husband, Dan, of Altamont, IL and Mindy Rice and husband, Brian, of Cole Camp, MO; brother, Rod Whitehill and wife, Debbie, of Corona, CA; nieces and nephews, Emily Miller, Tim, Tony, and Annie Arend, T.J. Whitehill, Brianne Elam, Brandy Geiger, Cory, Erin, and Shelby Rice; plus a special friend, Linda Hudson of Shenandoah.
