

Obituary

Doris Jean (Pierce) Brink, daughter of Orval and Vernice (Ashton) Pierce, was born August 4, 1929, on the home farm near Farragut, Iowa and unexpectedly passed away on July 29, 2001, at the home farm.

She attended school in Farragut, graduating from Farragut High School with the Class of 1946. After graduation she attended Cosmetology School in Des Moines and worked in beauty shops in Farragut and Shenandoah. On November 12, 1948, Doris was united in marriage to Glen Brink in Shenandoah. Following their marriage they farmed in the Farragut and Shenandoah area before returning to the family farm near Farragut. Doris was a lifetime member of the Farragut United Methodist Church where she helped teach the high school Sunday school class, worked in the church's Women's Society and was currently director of the church choir and secretary of the church board. For many years she was a member of the Pairs and Squares Dancers and was currently teaching line dancing to the Dancing Grannies Line Dance Class in Farragut. She enjoyed painting and her flower garden.

Preceding Doris in death were her parents, brother, Robert Pierce, and sister Ruth Ann Pierce. She is survived by her husband, Glen Brink of the home; son, Paul Brink and his wife Cathy of rural Shenandoah; daughter, Patricia Fuller and her husband Doug and their daughter Olivia Fuller of Ft. Ann, NY; one brother, Leslie Pierce and his wife Jeannie of Portland, OR; numerous nieces, nephews other relatives and many friends.
