The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Jack E. Pease

Jack Edson Pease, the son of Marion G. and Opal L. (Snoden) Pease, was born September 12, 1926, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away May 8, 2004, in Shenandoah at the age of 77.

Growing up in the Shenandoah area, Jack graduated from Shenandoah High School in 1943. He served his country in the United States Army during the Korean War. On February 22, 1955, Jack was united in marriage to Wanda Anderson Bedell at St John's Episcopal Church in Shenandoah. This marriage was blessed with two children, Michael and Freda.

Jack spent his entire working career farming. His involvement in agriculture led him to receive many awards of which one he was proud to receive was for Outstanding Accomplishments in Resource Conservation. He was a member of St John's Episcopal Church and American Legion Post #88 in Shenandoah. Jack and Wanda enjoyed spending winters in Mesa, Arizona and Palm Springs, California, where he would often play golf. Jack enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren.

Preceding Jack in death were his parents, Marion and Opal Pease. Survivors include his wife of 49 years, Wanda; son, Michael B. Bedell and wife, Anita, of Houston, Texas; and daughter Freda J. Peery and husband, Jimmie, of Shenandoah; brother, Charles Pease and wife, Lois, of Shenandoah; sisters, Marilyn Hagedorn of Ft. Collins, Colorado and Clotile Pease of Minneapolis, Minnesota; grandchildren, Michael and Steven Bedell, Christie Rock, Tracey Dutcher and Sarah Turner; plus 9 great grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
