The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Donna B. Duncan

Donna Bess Duncan, age 70, the daughter of Leo and Naomi (Johnson) Lindamood was born October 24, 1934, at Fall River, Kansas, and passed away July 7, 2005, in Omaha, Nebraska.

As a young person Donna traveled extensively with her family, due to her father's employment with Tidy House. In 1952 she graduated from Tech High School in Indianapolis, Indiana. On June 9, 1956 Donna was united in marriage to Harold Duncan in Shenandoah, Iowa, and while Harold was stationed in the Army until 1958 they lived in Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. They then moved to Indianapolis until 1959 at which time they moved to Shenandoah, where they resided ever since. To this marriage Linda and Mike were born.

In 1965 they bought Olsen's Drug Store which they owned and operated until 1981. Donna then enjoyed being at home taking care of her family and home. She was a member of the First Christian Church and BPW in Shenandoah. She enjoyed crafts, cooking, bowling, was an avid fan of Chicago Cubs baseball, playing golf in her younger years, but most of all she enjoyed keeping track of her grandchildren and their activities.

Preceding Donna in death were her parents and twin sister Vonna Gilbert. Survivors include her husband, Harold, of Shenandoah; daughter and son-in-law, Linda and Rod Oto, of Northfield, Minnesota; son and daughter-in-law, Mike and Lisa Duncan, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and brother and sister-in-law, Laverne and Joyce Lindamood, of Springfield, Vermont. Also surviving are four grandchildren, Ryan and Carly Oto, of Northfield and Cody and Zac Duncan, of Sioux Falls; plus other relatives and friends.
