

Obituary

Jonna Rhea Glines, daughter of John Willard and Gladys (Fremont) Fithen, was born on July 8, 1944, in Shenandoah, Iowa. She passed away on Monday, May 24, 2004, at the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha, Nebraska at the age of 59.

Jonna lived her entire life in Shenandoah. She received her education in the Shenandoah school system. On July 6, 1962, Jonna was united in marriage to Gary Eldon Glines in Nebraska City, Nebraska. Following their marriage they lived in Shenandoah and raised three daughters, Kelli, Kandi and Kathi. Jonna worked at the Bernings Café and Henry Fields Nursery. She was employed by the Shenandoah Memorial Hospital, working in the cafeteria as a dietary aide for the last 21 and one-half years. She was raised in the First Baptist Church. Jonna had many interests, among them were camping, traveling, music, family, TV, reading, swimming, collecting elephants and spoiling her grandchildren. Above all, she was an Elvis fan. Jonna loved listening to him sing and watching his movies. She had an extensive collection of Elvis memorabilia.

Preceding Jonna in death were her parents and a sister, Effie May Fithen. Survivors include her husband, Gary Glines of the home; daughters, Kelli Gould and her husband Jules of West Des Moines, IA, Kandi Racine and her husband Stanley of Shenandoah, IA, and Kathi Hogue and her husband Chris of Shenandoah, IA; seven grandchildren, Travis, Patty, Tyler and Jennifer Roberts, Devin and Kaci Hogue, J. D. Gould, Levi Glines-Racine and Connell Racine; one great grandchild, Nathan Tyler Roberts; brother, Russell "Rusty" Fithen of Clarinda, IA; sister, Nancy Brownfield of Nebraska City, NE; other relatives and many friends.

Services Entrusted To:
Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
246-2912