

Celebration of Life Memorial Service for Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, Iowa
Tuesday, November 22, 2016
Ten-Thirty a.m.

Words of Comfort
Pastor Dave Wynn
Pastor Jenny Folmar
Mayor Richard Hunt

Register Book
Marilyn Marsden Rhonda Royer

Music
Theme from "Gun Smoke"
"How Great Thou Art"
Performed by Luke Cox
"I Will Always Love You" by Dolly Parton
"Don't Let The Sun Go Down On Me" by Elton John
"Come Monday"
Preformed by Luke Cox

Urn Bearers
Travis Roberts Tyler Roberts Devin Hogue
JD Gould Levi Gary Glines Connell Racine
Jonah Chandler

Honorary Urn Bearer
Present and former Shenandoah City Employees
Shenandoah Fire Department Members Past and Present
All of Gary's many other relatives and friends

Memorials
Shenandoah Fire Department or Tarkio First Christian Church

Place of Rest
Rose Hill Cemetery
Shenandoah, Iowa

Following the graveside service please join the family for lunch and fellowship at the Congregational Church located at 300 Church St. in Shenandoah.

Gary Eldon Glines, son of Betty Jean Barragar and step son of Earl Erickson, was born on July 14, 1944 in Clarinda, Iowa. He entered into rest on Wednesday, November 16, 2016 at the Shenandoah Medical Center in Shenandoah.

Gary at a young age moved to a part of Clarinda called "Guntown." This area of Clarinda got its name from, Yes... gun slinging! Back in the day cowboys and farmers would bring their cattle down Garfield Street, to the stockyards for selling. The area of town grew into sa-loons, gun fighting broke out often. This became the dangerous part of the Clarinda community and citizens should stay clear of. Gary was very proud of where he came from.

Gary was united in marriage to Jonna Rhea Fithen on July 6, 1962. To this union three girls were born Kelli Rachelle, Kandi Ann and Kathi Yvonne. On May 24, 2004 Jonna Rhea entered into rest. On March 5, 2005, Gary was united in marriage to Sharon Hogue in Tarkio, Missouri. He became a step-father to four boys Derek, Mark, Chris and Tim.

Gary was educated in the Clarinda School System leaving to help support his siblings in the 10th grade. He did several different jobs after leaving school. His first job was at the Clarinda Bowling alley setting up pins for a cent a pin. In 1964 he was hired by the city of Shenandoah, retiring from the water department in 2004 after 40 years of service to the community. After retirement he enjoyed helping people by doing odd jobs. Gary was a Shenandoah Volunteer Fireman for 20 years which he enjoyed very much.

Gary enjoyed vacationing, camping, hunting, fishing, but true enjoyment was woodworking. He loved to watch his grandchildren in their many sporting events. He loved his family and friends whenever and wherever he was. He enjoyed his retirement being a "snowbird", spending part of the year in Arizona with Sharon, friends and family.

Gary was preceded in death by his mother Betty Jean Erickson, step father Earl Erickson, first wife Jonna Rhea Fithen Glines and brother Ronald Glines.

Survivors include his wife Sharon Glines, his beloved children, Kelli Glines Gould, Kandi Glines, Kathi Chandler and husband John; step sons, Derek Hogue and wife Tracy, Mark Hogue and wife Becky, Chris Hogue and wife Leslie, Tim Hogue and wife Jeana, grandchildren, Travis and Patty Roberts, Tyler and Jennifer Roberts, Devin and Jodie Hogue, Kaci Hogue and her friend Justin Sickler, Levi Gary Glines, Connell Racine, JD Gould, Jonah Chandler, 22 great-grandchildren, sisters Dianna Davison and husband Mike and Joyce Glines-Akers, brother Jim Erickson and wife Sue, many nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.