

In Loving Memory

Ross Stokes

Born

November 27, 1941
Shenandoah, Iowa

Entered into Rest

January 6, 2003
Iowa City, Iowa

Age

61 years, 1 month, 9 days

Ross Stokes the son of Lloyd and Lillian Ross Stokes was born at Shenandoah, Iowa, on November 27, 1941, and passed away at University of Iowa Hospitals in Iowa City, Iowa, on Monday, January 6, 2003 from cancer. Ross was born in Shenandoah, but moved away at an early age, returning in 1955 with his parents, remaining in the area the rest of his life.

Ross was employed for many years by Lakes Nursery Co. and Henry Fields Nursery Company, the last four years being employed at Johnson Locker in Essex, Iowa. He enjoyed playing cards, fishing and gardening.

Ross was preceded in death by his parents, twin daughters, Stacey Lynn and Tracey Lynn; a sister Doris Kins; two brothers, Danny and Gene Stokes. Survivors include two daughters, Lisa Galloway and her husband Shawn of Decatur, Arkansas, and Denise Esquivel of Burlington Junction, Missouri; three grandchildren, Cale Galloway, Juan Esquivel, and Steve Esquivel; two sisters, Donna Strange and husband Floyd of Essex, Iowa, and Joann Davis of Fordland, Missouri; several nieces, nephews and a host of friends.