Mothers Are The Place That We Call Home

Mothers are the place that we call home.
On them we rest our heads and close our eyes.
There's no one else who grants the same soft peace,
Happiness, contentment, sweet release,
Erasing nighttime tears with lullabies,
Restoring the bright sun that makes us bloom.

Verna P. Cain

Verna Pauline Cain, the daughter of Carl Alfred and Matilda M. (Butler) Swanson, was born November 18, 1925, in Shenandoah, Iowa. She grew up in Shenandoah and received her education from the Shenandoah school system. In 1956, Verna was united in marriage to Clayton Cain in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and to this union Carl and Carla were born. Through the years Verna worked at the Union Carbide Plant, Mount Arbor Nursery and the American Legion Country Club. She enjoyed fishing, watching John Wayne movies, crossword puzzles and reading. Verna especially loved her children and grandchildren and enjoyed when she could spend time with them. She was even a second mom to her nieces and nephews.

Preceding Verna in death were her parents. Survivors include her daughter and son-in-law, Carla and Michael Failor of Omaha, Nebraska; son, Carl Cain of Shenandoah; grandchildren Tyler, Joseph, Angela, Jonny, and Clarissa; great grandchildren, Todd and Casey; brothers, John Swanson of Des Moines, Iowa and James Swanson of Shenandoah; sisters, Marjorie Bright of Edgerton, Wisconsin, and Phyllis Richardson of Shenandoah; cousin, Muriel Younggren of Hallock, Minnesota plus several nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.
