The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Lelia M. Franks

Lelia Marie Franks, age 80, the daughter of William “Bill” and Lillian “Lillie” (Jones) Brown was born February 16, 1926, at Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away August 1, 2006, in Shenandoah.

Growing up in Shenandoah Lelia received her education from the Shenandoah school system. In 1943 she was united in marriage with Bobby Dean Franks, and to this marriage a daughter, Pam, and a son, Bobby Dean, Jr. was born.

For many years Lelia worked various jobs at Henry Field Seed and Nursery Company. She was a past member of the Eagle’s Club. She enjoyed playing golf, traveling and fishing with her family and friends in Canada plus RV camping. She was a devoted wife and mother with a great “love of family”, who were most important to her. She was known for her concern for others, often checking on and spending time with those who needed her care.

Preceding Lelia in death were her parents; husband; sister, Eva Miller; and infant granddaughter, Jennifer Hannah.

Survivors include her daughter and son-in-law, Pam and John Hannah of Columbus, Nebraska; son, Bobby Franks, Jr. of Essex, Iowa; sisters, Deanie Whitehill of Shenandoah and Velesta Reavis and husband, Maury, of Shenandoah.. Also surviving are grandchildren, Ben Hannah of Bellevue, Nebraska, Carli Franks of Chicago, Illinois, and Candice Franks of Shenandoah; plus numerous other relatives and friends.
