Joan Jackson

Anita Joan Jackson, the daughter of Frank P. and Martha Lea (Burch) Lee, was born March 14, 1935, in Elmo, Missouri and passed away August 13, 2001, at her home in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Joan grew up in Elmo and received her education in the Elmo school system, graduating in 1954. On June 27, 1953, at Fort Belvoir, Virginia, she married Robert D. (Bob) Jackson, and to this union a daughter Rita was born. Over the years Joan was employed part-time at Earl May Seed and Nursery, Mount Arbor Nursery and Triple K Manufacturing. She was a member of First Christian Church of Shenandoah. Joan enjoyed dancing, loved to cook, bake and take care of her family. She was known to be a loving and caring person and an exceptional wife.

Preceding Joan in death were her parents; brother-in-law, Ronald Smith; and special aunts, uncles and cousins.

Survivors include her husband, Bob Jackson of Shenandoah; daughter, Rita Thompson and husband, Bill, of Dearborn, MI; grandchildren, Carly Erwin of Boyne Falls, MI; Adrien Thompson and Bryan Thompson of Dearborn, MI; four great-grandchildren; a brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Russell and Wilma Jackson of Shenandoah; several cousins plus other relatives and friends.
