Ben C. Bright

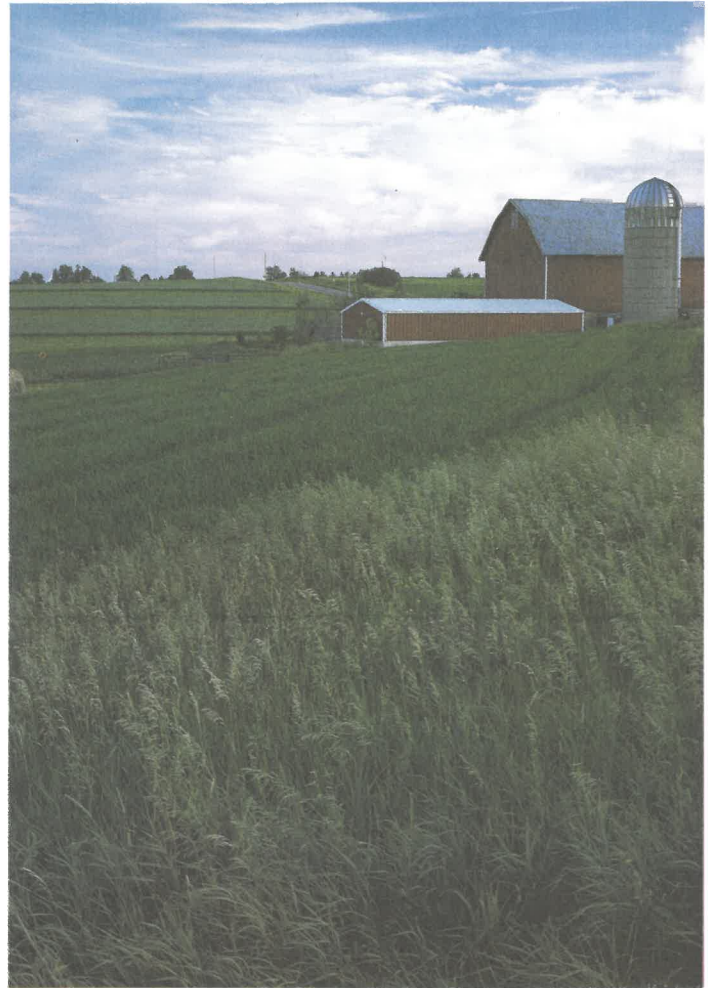

Bernard Charles Bright, the son of Murlin D. and Katie L. (McKinney) Bright, was born February 21, 1930, in Shenandoah, Iowa and passed away November 9, 2001, in Shenandoah.

Ben grew up in the Shenandoah area and received his education in country schools. He was united in marriage to Marjorie Swanson on April 18, 1948 at Full Gospel Tabernacle Church in Shenandoah. To this union, five children, Thomas, Janet, Paula, Bill, and Kent were born. Ben was employed at Mount Arbor Nursery Company in Shenandoah for about 45 years. He enjoyed going to auctions, making craft items, and woodworking. He also enjoyed fixing and repairing cars, traveling and taking time to go visit their children and grandchildren.

Preceding Ben in death were his parents, Murlin and Katie McKinney Bright, and two brothers, Robert and LeRoy Bright.

Survivors include his wife, Marjorie, of Shenandoah; son, Thomas Bright, of Farragut, Iowa; daughters, Janet McKinnon and husband, David, of Edgerton, Wisconsin; Paula Schafer and husband, Thomas, of Essex, Iowa; son, Bill Bright and wife, Diana, of Edgerton, Wisconsin; son, Kent Bright and wife, Michelle, of Shenandoah; three brothers, Richard Bright and wife, Lois, of Essex, IA, Jack Bright of Red Oak, IA, and Russell Bright and wife, Dow, of Charleston, SC; eleven grandchildren and six great grandchildren, plus other relatives and friends.
