Wayne Greer

Ivan Wayne Greer, the son of Harley and Millie (Edgeman) Greer, was born May 5, 1914, in Clio, IA, and passed away January 2, 2001, in Shenandoah, IA.

Wayne grew up in Humeston, IA and received his education in the Humeston school system graduating in 1931. He played on the basketball team which was the state runner-up champion team. He moved to Clarinda where he met Flossie Ratliff. On March 16, 1938, they were united in marriage and to this union three children Johnnie, Jodie and Barbara were born.

Wayne spent 42 years with Peter Pan/Metz Baking Company, serving half of those years as a supervisor, retiring in 1975. During his career with Metz Baking Company he was proud of a 40-year safe driving record and was known for his high ethics amongst his peers in the bread industry. Wayne loved horseback riding, lawn work, traveling and camping.

Preceding Wayne in death were his parents; brother, Vernie Greer, great grandson, Nathan Greer Grant; son-in-law, Lyle Cox; two brother-in-laws, Laurel Exley and Virgil Calhoun; and sister-in-law, Lucille Greer.

Survivors include his wife Flossie Greer of Shenandoah; sons, Johnnie Greer and wife Elizabeth of Berea, KY, Jodie Greer and wife Karen of Springfield, MO and daughter Barbara Cox of Shenandoah; grandchildren Pam Greer, Bea Rowe, Julie Geis, David Greer, Mary Beth Dahler, Robin Grant, Lori Biffle, Lisa Nene, and Deanna Cox; nineteen great grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren; sisters Evelyn Exley of Humeston, Erma Calhoun of Colorado Springs, CO; brother Virgil Greer of Woodburn, OR; sister-in-law Martha Greer of Humeston plus several nieces and nephews.
