

Celebration of Life: Funeral Service from
The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints

Shenandoah, Iowa
Monday, January 4, 2021
1:00 p.m.

Words of Comfort
Bishop Kyle Taylor

Song of Comfort
"O' My Father"

"Abide With Me, 'Tis Eventide"

Soloist
Rachel Bowery

Pianist
Nancy Bowery

Casket Bearers
Randy Erhart Frank Erhart
Kevin Kersten Larry Jaeckel
Jason Baldwin David Baldwin

Honorary Casket Bearers
Randy Messenger Lee Hubler

Resting Place
Rose Hill Cemetery
Shenandoah, Iowa

Military Rites
Shenandoah American Legion Color Guard

Memorials
Intermountain Foundation - Primary Children's Hospital
100 N Mario Capecechi Dr.
Salt Lake City, UT 84113

Budford "Bud" Wayne Erhart, son of Frank Oakley and Hazel (Hamshire) Erhart, was born of September 9, 1930 in Talmage, Nebraska. He passed away on December 30, 2020 at his home in Shenandoah.

Bud's early years were spent in Talmage, Nebraska. At the age of 12, the family moved to Shenandoah, Iowa. He graduated from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1948. During his high school years, he was a member of the Future Farmers of America.

Bud served his country from 1950 until 1954 for the United States Navy. He was a Radio Seaman - USN-1 on an Admiral's ship during the Korean War.

Bud's first marriage was to Loralee Lucas in 1956. His second marriage was to Edna Hurd on September 28, 1963 in San Diego, California. They resided in San Diego, CA; Altus, OK; Ferguson and Florissant, MO before settling back in Shenandoah. In 1964, Bud adopted Edna's son, Randy.

In 1957, Bud attended and graduated from the Radio Engineering Institute in Omaha, NE. After graduating he used his degree working for Convair Aircraft (1957-1960), General Dynamics (1960-1965) and McDonnell Aircraft Corp/McDonnell Douglas (1965-1973). In 1973, he returned to Shenandoah to help in his parent's business, the 59er Motel & Campground. Then he helped Edna with the H&R Block franchise she began. For some years he also started his own business, Erhart Honey Farms, before acquiring the motel business.

Bud was a member and elder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. In his lifetime he enjoyed bee keeping, hunting and horseback riding.

Bud was preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Hazel Erhart. Those left to cherish his memory include his wife Edna Erhart of Shenandoah; children: Randy Erhart and wife Carman of Shenandoah; Pati Lindgren and husband Doug of Wahoo, NE; Barbara Kersten and husband Kevin of Fremont, NE; Karen Hubler and husband Lee of Springfield, MO; and Frank Erhart and wife Michele of Athol, ID; 12 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and numerous other family and friend.

Presiding and Conducting: Bishop Kyle Taylor
Music: Nancy and Rachel Bowery

Order of Service

Opening Song: "O' My Father"

Invocation: Aaron Green

Obituary and Remarks: Bishop Kyle Taylor

Speaker: Mark Dahl

Speaker: Frank Erhart

Congregation Remembrances

Closing Song: "Abide with Me, 'Tis Eventide"

Benediction: Larry Jaeckel

*Please remember to silence your cell phones.
Thank-you*

Life Remembered