Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My son, My precious child, I love you, and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Ronald L. Fisher

Ronald Lee Fisher, the son of Roscoe A. and Lena F. (Meyers) Fisher, was born December 31, 1934, in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and passed away June 22, 2003, at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska.

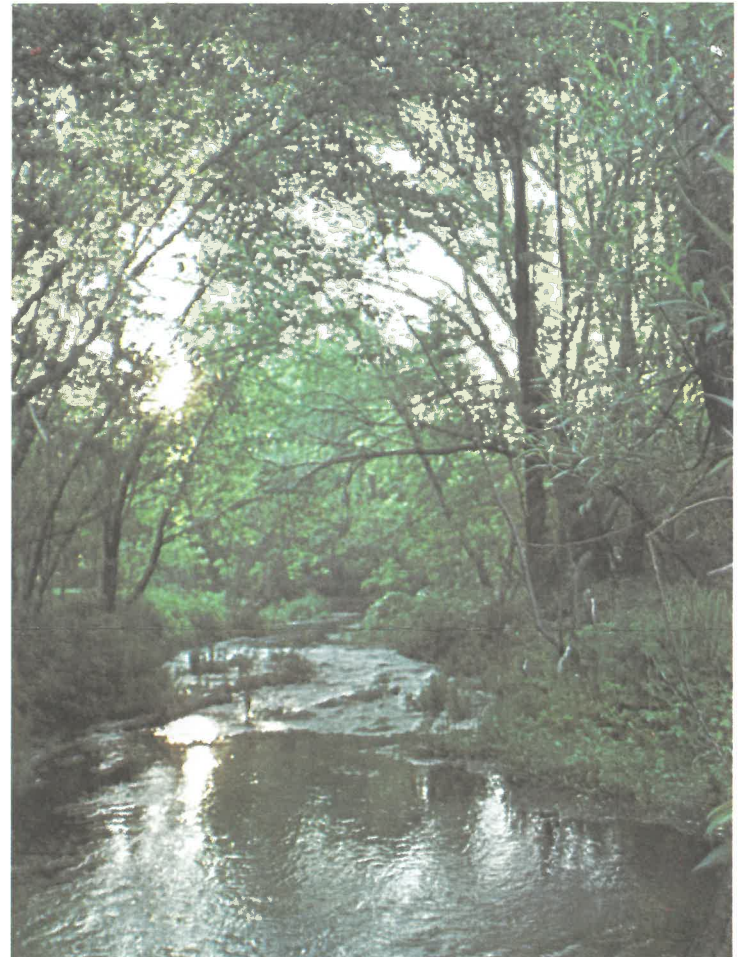

Growing up in Hancock, Iowa, Ron received his education in the Hancock school system graduating in 1953. After high school, he worked for a few years on the Rock Island Rail Road as a lineman. On November 24, 1956, Ron was united in marriage to Elaine Hajek and to this union, Robin, Blaine, Justin and Clay were born. After their marriage, Ron joined the U.S. Army and served a tour of duty in Germany. After his discharge in 1959, he returned to work again as a lineman in Utah, and then for Northwestern Bell in Atlantic, Iowa and then Shenandoah, Iowa in 1961. In 1967 Ron began farming in the Shenandoah area until 1992 at which time he became an over the road truck driver.

Ron was known as a gentle but strong man, who enjoyed the "outdoors" and the companionship of his German Shepherd dogs. Some of his favorite pastimes were playing cribbage, reading western novels and watching John Wayne movies.

Preceding Ron in death were his parents, Roscoe and Lena Fisher. Survivors include his wife, Elaine Fisher of Shenandoah; children, Robin Hansell and husband, Jeff, of Overbrook, Kansas, Blaine Fisher of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Justin Fisher and wife, Ruth, of Shenandoah and Clay Fisher and wife, Kim, of Omaha, Nebraska; grandchildren, Raquel and Austin Hansell, Heather, Shayna, Rachel, Amanda and Quinton Fisher, plus other relatives and friends.
