Obituary

James Alan Smith, son of James Dean and Lorene (Bissel) Smith, was born on November 4, 1961 in St. Paul, Minnesota. He passed away on Monday, November 29, 2004 at his residence in Clarinda, Iowa, following a lengthy bout with cancer at the age of 43.

Alan grew up in Shenandoah, Iowa and attended the Shenandoah Schools. Alan worked in construction and moved to Clarinda in 1996. He worked for Don Myers Construction and England Painting & Roofing. On November 20, 2004, Alan was united in marriage to Tammy Mosier. Among his favorites were fishing, hunting, camping and collecting knives and wolf statues. He also enjoyed watching NASCAR Racing and wrestling. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family. Those who knew him best, will remember Alan for his great sense of humor and the way he liked to joke with them. He had concern for everyone around him and was always the first to help when someone was in need. Alan found out in March of this year that he had cancer. During the last few months, Alan spent most of his time making sure his family and personal affairs were taken care of and had made peace with himself.

Preceding Alan in death were his father, James Dean Smith; grandparents, Leon and Hildy Smith; father-in-law, Gary Barton; and brother-in-law, Mike Repasky. Survivors include his wife, Tammy Smith; children, Jamie, Jessica, Jonathan, Ashley, Amber and Tylor; mother, Corene Smith; mother-in-law, Carol Mosier; two sisters, Ann and Jim Dawson and Jane and Jason England; brother-in-laws, Chris Mosier and Junior Brown and family; sister-in-law, Carol Mosier; nieces, Lori Aley, Kristy Smith and family, Melissa and Ken Rahn and family, Amanda and Jon Madden and family; nephew, Jarrod and Christina Brown and family; grandson, Jacob; other relatives and many friends.
