Richard H. Walter

Richard Henry Walter, the son of George H. and Rosa (Hitz) Walter, was born September 17, 1924, in Rock Port, Missouri, and passed away November 27, 2002, in Omaha, Nebraska.

Richard moved with his family to Shenandoah, Iowa as a small child and received his education there and graduated from Shenandoah High School in 1942. He farmed on the family farm south of Shenandoah for almost sixty years. On September 5, 1947, Richard was united in marriage to Dorothy Wolford. To this union Georgia, Denise, Pat and John were born.

He was a member of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Rambling Rose Camping Club and the Elk's Lodge #1122 in Shenandoah. Through the years he was also active in the Fremont County Farm Bureau, was a member of the Shenandoah School's Board of Education and former board of Crestland Co-op.

Preceding Richard in death were his parents; sister, Marjorie Grassmeier.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy of Shenandoah; daughters, Georgia Walter and husband, Richard Stacy of Omaha, Nebraska; Denise Smith and husband, Randy of Bonner Springs, Kansas; Pat Barr and husband, Tim of Shenandoah; son, John Walter and wife, Rose of Shenandoah; grandchildren, John, Ben and Will Stacy of Omaha; Andrew, Katie and Nathan Smith of Bonner Springs; Matt Barr of Shenandoah; Mick and Dan Walter of Shenandoah; several cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.
