The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Eleanor C. Whitehill

Eleanor Cleone Whitehill, the daughter of Benjamin and Laura (Walker) Hall, was born June 2, 1923, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away August 16, 2003, at Elm Heights/Park Crest Care Center in Shenandoah.

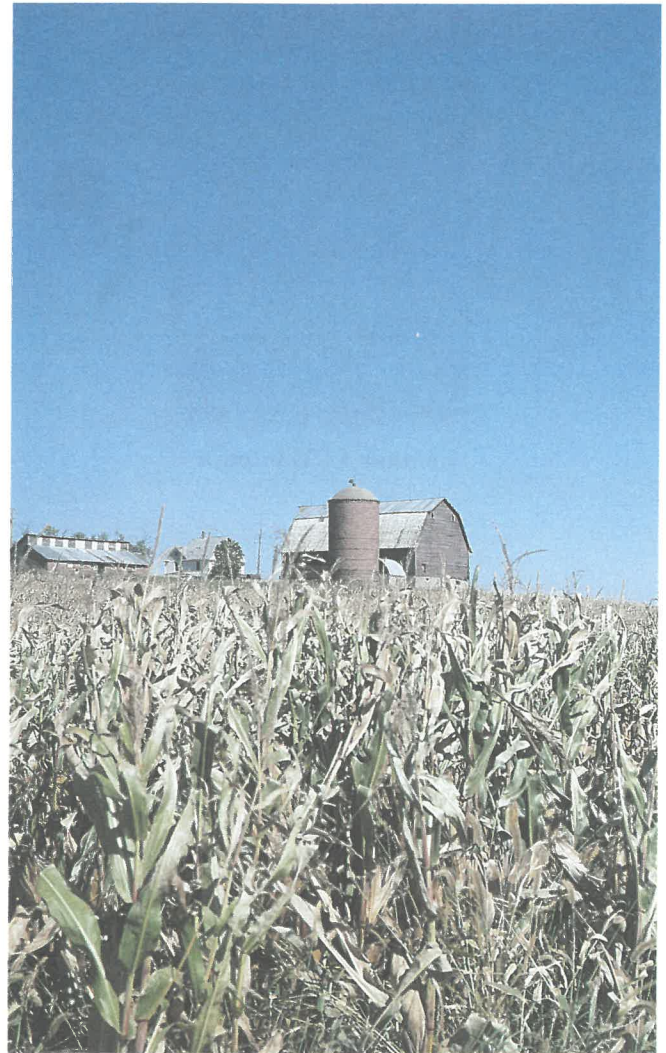

Growing up in the Farragut, Iowa area, Eleanor attended country school and graduated from Farragut Community High School in 1940. In 1942, she graduated from Peru State Teachers College and for two years taught in country schools and one year in the Sidney, Iowa school system. On March 24, 1946, she was united in marriage to George R. (Bob) Whitehill at the Congregational Church in Farragut and to this marriage, Barry Randy, Bob and Beverly were born. They farmed south of Shenandoah for many years. Eleanor was a long time member of the Summit United Methodist Church, where she was the church organizer. She was a member of DAR, serving as regent and treasurer, and was active with the Shenandoah Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. She and her husband enjoyed square dancing and for many years were involved with 4-H. One of Eleanor's favorite pastimes was attending the many programs and events of her grandchildren.

Preceding Eleanor in death were her parents; husband Bob; son, Randy; daughter, Beverly Kilbourn; son-in-law, Howard Kilbourn, and two brothers, Gerald and Harold Hall.

Survivors include her sons and their wives, Barry and Cindy Whitehill of Waterloo, Iowa, and Bob and Janet Whitehill of Farragut, Iowa; one sister and her husband, Betty and Don Pizar of Temple, Texas; plus seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

(A luncheon and fellowship with the family will follow interment services in Rose Hill Cemetery at the Summit United Methodist Church 6 miles south of Shenandoah on Highway 59.)
