

Obituary

Daisy Mae (Young) Lantow, daughter of Thomas A. and Emmeretta (Crites)Young, was born May 31, 1907 in Shenandoah, Iowa and passed away Thursday, March 29, 2001 at Garden View Care Center.

Daisy had two brothers and three sisters, Raymond, Della, Dorothy, Mary and Tommy. She went to school in Shenandoah. She worked in various places including Cecil and Sally's Bakery.

Daisy and Albert H. Lantow were united in marriage October 10, 1942. They made their home in Omaha, Nebraska until Al's death on March 3, 1962. Daisy returned to Shenandoah and made her home with her sister, Dorothy Young. She worked for various people including the ceramic shop, and later helped in the school hot lunch program, and helped Dorothy with her custom baking business. She remained in the home after Dorothy passed away in 1974, until becoming a resident at Garden View Care Center, August 15, 1995.

When Leona and Spencer Harris moved into a house across the alley from Daisy, Leona and Daisy became very close friends. They went places together and both enjoyed doing crafts. Leona's grandchildren became Daisy's grandchildren. This was a very happy time in Daisy's life, as she and Al did not have children.

Daisy was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, brothers, Raymond and Tommy; sisters, Della Leedy, Dorothy Young and Mary Perkins.

Survivors include her nieces, Mary Lou (Perkins) Rasmussen of Shenandoah, Lotus (Perkins) Foster of Shenandoah, Laura Marie (Young) Lancaster of Camas, Washington, Della Mae (Young) Griffith of Citrus Heights, California and Betty Ann (Young) Brooks of Clackamas, Oregon, along with other relatives and friends.

Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home

712-246-2912

Shenandoah, Iowa