God Looked Around His Garden

God Looked around His garden
and He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this
Earth and saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never get well on Earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered "Peace Be Thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.

Robert B. Reed

Robert Benjamin Reed, age 98, the son of Benjamin and Susan (Worthan) Reed was born October 10, 1906, in rural Clarinda, Iowa, and passed away July 2, 2005, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Growing up on a farm near Clarinda, Bob graduated from Clarinda High School in 1926. On March 9, 1930, he was united in marriage to Dorothy Allen at the Methodist Church in Sidney, Iowa, and to this union, Jackie, Robert and Gary were born. They lived in Shenandoah, where through the years Bob was associated with Swift Creamery, Bloom's Hatchery and Van Buskirk Grain, from which he retired. He was known to be a hard worker and a friend to many area farmers. Bob had a great interest in the weather and loved to play cards and visit with his friends. He was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Shenandoah.

Preceding Bob in death were his parents and his wife, Dorothy. Survivors include his daughter, Jackie Hughes and husband, Joe, of Imogene, Iowa; and sons, Robert A. Reed and wife, Betsy, of Omaha, Nebraska, and Gary Reed of Shenandoah. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren: Kim Hughes and wife, Becky, Kelly Hughes, Kevin Hughes and wife, Stacy, Karla Hughes, Karoline Hodges and fiancé Scott Carnes, Kenny Hughes and wife, Teresa, Kay Durfey and husband, Doug, Kolleen McGargill and husband, Dave, Karrie Hughes, Kirk Hughes, Kris Hughes, Robert Reed, Jr. and wife, Stacie, and Timothy Reed and wife, Mindy. Other relatives surviving are 28 great grandchildren, 4 great-great grandchildren plus other relatives and friends.

(The family would like to invite you to a luncheon at the church following graveside services.)
