

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd. I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Jerry Merle Dodd, son of Clifford Merle and Ada Burch Dodd, was born September 2, 1953 in Shenandoah, Iowa. He passed away on Monday, November 27, 2017 at the Azria Health Midtown in Omaha, Nebraska.

Jerry was born handicapped for this reason he lived with his parents in Randolph for many years. He later got his own apartment in Omaha. He attended various different schools, special schools for the handicapped in Nashville and Kansas City. Jerry secretly and to the surprise of his family received his GED on his own.

Jerry worked for Offutt Air Force Base in Bellevue and the IRS in Omaha. He loved his work and never missed a day. He has excellent references and recommendations. One such reference came from Nebraska Congresswoman Virginia Smith.

Jerry was dedicated to the Presbyterian Church and later to the Catholic Church.

Jerry loved classical music. He was a bible student and was paraphrasing the bible for fun. He had thousands of pages written. He also was a news junky, he always knew what was going on in the news and would inform the family. He liked watching old fashion good moral movies and reading political books.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Merle and Ada Dodd and several aunts and uncles. Survivors include his sister Rebecca Jane Dodd of Randolph, Iowa, numerous cousins and other family.
