

ELDON LEVINE RYDBERG

Eldon was born to the union of Emil and Anna (Carlson) Rydberg on March 18, 1915 at Imogene, Iowa. He grew up in Shenandoah, Iowa attending Broad Street Grade School later graduating from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1933.

Eldon was a life long Methodist, being baptized in the Shenandoah Methodist Church in 1925.

Eldon and Julia E. Rice were united in marriage on April 24, 1939 at Norfolk, Nebraska. To this union one son was born, Roger Rydberg.

After graduating from high school he played semi-pro baseball from 1933-1935. Eldon worked for Henry Field Seed Mill from 1935-1946, Peter Pan Bread 1946-1966, Old Home Bread 1966, 1975. In March of 1975 Eldon retired from Old Home Bread.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Julia Rydberg; parents; brothers, Arthur, Roy, Clel and Glen Rydberg and one sister, Shirley.

He is survived by his son, Roger Rydberg of Storm Lake, Iowa; along with many other relatives and friends.
