Immortality

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you wake in the mornings hush,
I am the swift upflinging rush of quiet birds in circling flight,
I am the soft starshine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I did not die.

Marie Stambaugh

Emma Marie Stambaugh, the daughter of Chester H. and Gertrude M. (King) Rist, was born April 5, 1910, in rural Glenwood, Iowa, and passed away April 28, 2003, at Gardenview Care Center in Shenandoah, Iowa.

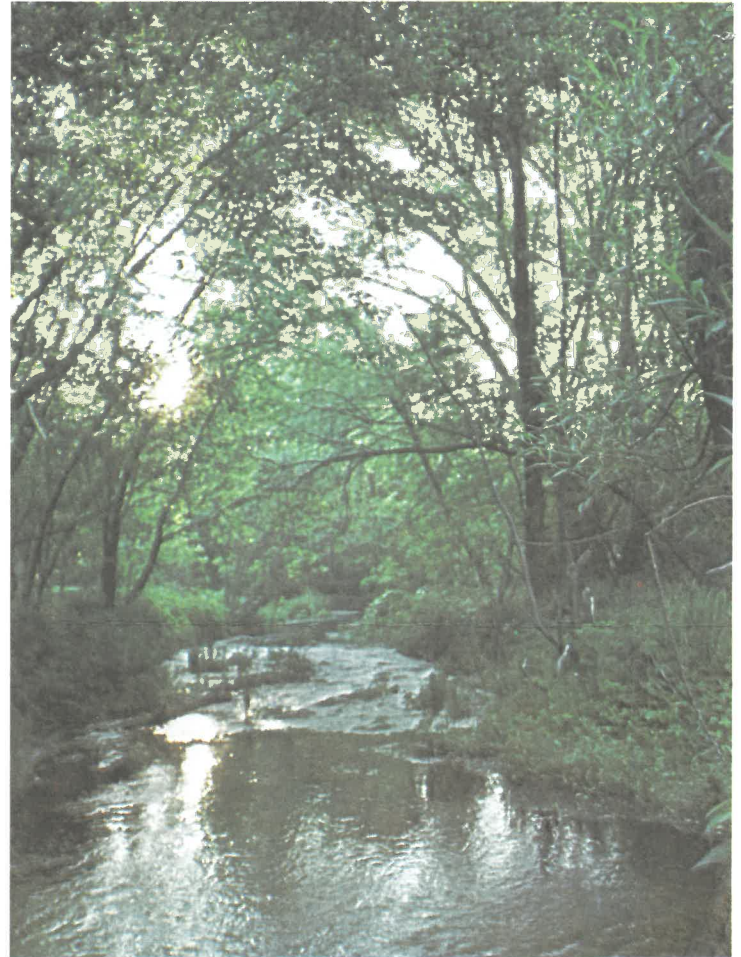

Growing up near Sidney, Iowa, Marie received her education in a country school and in the Sidney school system, graduating from high school in 1928. On May 30, 1931, Marie was united in marriage to Glen Stambaugh and to this union, Chester and Jerry were born. They then moved to rural Shenandoah where they farmed for a few years before settling in rural Coin, Iowa. They farmed there until retiring and moving to Shenandoah in 1973.

Marie was a member of the first 4-H club organized in Prairie Township, member of the First Baptist Church in Shenandoah, life long member of the WW Club and the Shenandoah Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. She enjoyed sewing, quilting, raising chickens, gardening and was known to be a great cook. She especially enjoyed baby sitting with her grandchildren.

Proceeding Marie in death were her parents; husband, Glen, in 1989; brothers, Billy and Lewis Rist; and brother-in-law, Elvin Pierce.

Survivors include her sons and daughter-in-law, Chester and Ellen Stambaugh of Villisca and Jerry Stambaugh of Shenandoah; sister, Doris Pierce of Loveland, Colorado; sister-in-law, Lois Rist of Las Cruces, New Mexico; five grandchildren; three great grandchildren plus several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
