The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Donald E. Powers

Donald Eugene Powers, age 69, the son of John and Mamie (White) Powers was born February 16, 1937, in rural Sidney, Iowa, and passed away May 2, 2006, in Clarinda, Iowa.

Growing up in the rural Farragut, Iowa, area Don attended school in Farragut graduating from high school in 1955. In 1983 Don was united in marriage to Irma Kendall at Nebraska City, Nebraska. Don farmed for several years, worked at Shaw Implement for 17 years and Eaton Manufacturing for 6 years retiring in 2000.

Don was often found working in his neatly kept yard, where he tended his flowers and cared for the wild life in the area. Watching baseball was a favorite pass time. He was a gentle, good and kind person always there to help those in need.

Preceding Don in death were his parents; brother, Orville Powers; and sister Sharon Cowden.

Survivors include his wife, Irma Powers of Shenandoah; daughters, Deborah Powers of Maryville, Missouri, Deanna Hurley and her husband, Tom, of Perry, Missouri, and Tammy Schatzberg of Maryville; stepdaughters and their husbands, Diana and Jack Stogdill of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Karen and Jerry Holte of Des Moines, Iowa. Also surviving are brothers, and their wives, Lawrence and Florence Powers of Peru, New York, and John and Kathy Powers of Red Oak, Iowa; sister, Eileen Smith and husband Louie, of Sidney, Iowa; brother-in-law, John Cowden of Riverton, Iowa. Others include 5 grandchildren; 3 step grandchildren; 3 step great grandchildren; other relatives and many friends.
