Clarence M. Hiser

- Clarence Milton Hiser, the son of John and Anna (Martin) Hiser, was born July 21, 1909, in rural Essex, Iowa and passed away December 19, 2001 at the Elm Heights Park Crest Care Center in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Clarence grew up in rural Shenandoah and received his education in a country school east of Shenandoah. He began farming with his father at an early age and continued until 1999 when his health no longer permitted him to do so. Farming was his passion and was known for his straight cornrows. Clarence enjoyed pitching horseshoes and was once the Southwest Iowa Champion. He also enjoyed fishing in the creek, which ran through the farm, with his family. He was united in marriage to Geneva Ruby Larson on November 29, 1939, at Saint Joseph, Missouri, and to this union three sons, Dennis, John and Gary were born. Clarence was a member of the First Baptist Church in Shenandoah.

Preceding Clarence in death were his parents, John and Anna Hiser; son, Dennis Hiser; sister, Mabel Johnston; brothers-in-law, Willard and Russell Larson; and sister-in-law, Myrtle Larson.

Survivors include his wife, Geneva Hiser of Shenandoah; sons, John Hiser and friend, Marcene Geske, of Omaha, Nebraska, Gary Hiser and wife, Sharon, of Shenandoah, daughter-in-law, Kaye Hiser, of Bartlett, Illinois; grandchildren, Jeff Hiser and wife, Tammy, of Shenandoah, Kent Hiser and wife, Sherri, of Lincoln, Nebraska, Krista Skilling and husband, Liam, of Honolulu, HA, Treasure Canova and husband, Mike, of Omaha, NE, Carla Hiser of Omaha, NE; great grandchildren, Terra Reents and husband, James, Jared, Kyle, Chase, and Caitlin Hiser and Tallulah Skilling; and great-great granddaughter, Taylor Reents plus his extended family and many special friends.
