Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little--but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.

Dean Miller Wolfe

Dean Miller Wolfe was born on June 11, 1932 in Shenandoah, Iowa, the son of Miller and Velma (Sweeten) Wolfe. Dean entered into eternal peace on Friday, March 1, 2013 at the Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah.

Dean lived his entire life in the Shenandoah community. During his working years he was employed at United Hagie, Dekalb Corn and the Page County Courthouse, where he retired from in 1994. He was a member of the Congregational Church, the Eagles Club and the 22 Club in Riverton.

Some of Dean's passions included playing golf, watching golf tournaments of television, woodworking, taking fishing trips to Canada, working in the yard, gardening and traveling in his younger days. Dean was also an avid gun enthusiast.

He was preceded in death by his parents Miller and Velma Wolfe; aunts and uncles George and Helen Wolfe and Marland and Ruby Peterson; and cousins Clair Peterson and Gene and Margaret Peterson. Those left to cherish his memory include his cousins John and Linda Wolfe of Shenandoah, Jim Wolfe of Omaha, NE, Joe Wolfe of Shenandoah and Beverly Peterson of Des Moines, other relatives and a host of friends.
