

Obituary

Lalah Cleo Bright, daughter of James Arthur and Minnie Etta (Coomes) Hirst, was born on September 17, 1914, in Archer, Nebraska. She passed away on Sunday, December 7, 2003, at the Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah. She was 89 years old. Lalah graduated from Essex High School with the Class of 1931. On December 11, 1941, Lalah was united marriage to Gail Allen Bright in Rock Port, Missouri. Following their marriage they resided in Shenandoah. She worked in the offices of Earl May Seed & Nursery and also Henry Fields. Lalah was a member of the First Baptist Church of Shenandoah. She enjoyed reading, bowling and her bridge clubs.

Preceding Lalah in death were her parents, her husband, Gail Bright; brother, James Hirst, Jr.; and two sisters, Thelma Hirst and Gladys Collison. Survivors include her five sisters, Alice Henshaw of Shenandoah, Lucille Karrle and Maxine Edwards of St. Joseph, MO, Frances Walton of Savannah, MO, and Ladonna Good and her husband Ralph of Denver, CO; brother, Arthur Hirst of Odessa, TX; several nieces, nephews; a very dear friend, Vivian Brush; and a host of other friends.

Following the services at the cemetery you are invited to join the family for a time refreshment and fellowship in the First Baptist Church basement.

Services entrusted to
Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, Iowa
712-246-2912