

Craig William Woodward was born July 14, 1960 in Chadron, Nebraska, the son of Warrar DeWayne and Mary Lou (Chaon) Woodward. He passed away on Monday afternoon, May 13, 2013 at Gardenview Care Center at the age of 52 years, 9 months and 29 days.

Craig grew up and attended school in western Nebraska. He moved to the Shenandoah area in 1988 and worked for Nishnaland Seed for 10 years, Farragut Schools for 2 years, Pella for 10 years and Wal-Mart until his declining health forced him to leave. On August 19, 1993 he was united in marriage to Janet Good in Sidney, Nebraska.

Craig loved the outdoors, especially hunting, fishing, metal detecting and riding his Harley. He enjoyed playing his guitar and listening to old country music, Merle Haggard being one of his favorites as well as he was an avid Nebraska Cornhusker fan. His true love was spending time with his family and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Warren Woodward; his brother, Alan Woodward; his step father, Lee Heins; and both his paternal and maternal grandparents.

A Bridge Called Love

It takes us back to brighter years,
to happier sunlit days and to precious moments that will be with us always.

And these fond recollections are treasured in the heart to bring us always close to those from whom we had to part.

There is a bridge of memories
from earth to Heaven above.
It keeps our dear ones near us,
it's the bridge that we call love.
