

Celebration of Life Funeral Service from Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, Iowa
Wednesday, November 21, 2018
Eleven O'clock

Words of Comfort
Pastor Don Buttry
Memorial Baptist Church

Songs of Comfort
“Goodbye” ~ Kenny Rogers
“Goodbye” (The Saddest Word) ~ Celine Dion
“How Can I Help You To Say Goodbye”
Patty Loveless

Place of Rest
Rose Hill Cemetery
Shenandoah, Iowa
To be held at a later date, following cremation.

Memorials
May be directed to the family

Following the service everyone is welcome back to the Memorial Baptist Church for a time of lunch and fellowship.

On Thursday, October 6, 1960 Albert Leota and Dora Louise (Hale) Loftis welcomed a baby girl, Deborah Kay into their family. She was the youngest of the four children. Deborah departed this life on Thursday, November 15, 2018 in Omaha, Nebraska.

Deborah's life was spent in the communities of Shenandoah and Kansas City. She was united in marriage to Donald Wayne Gray and the couple then moved to Arkansas. To this union, three daughters were born, Dora, Martha and Barbara. Deborah worked at Henry Fields, as a waitress, baby sat and walked beans. She was a very loving and caring mother. Some of her hobbies included crocheting, working on crossword puzzles and spending time with her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, sister Louise Loftis and loving companion Harold Parman.

Those left to cherish her memory include her daughters Dora Long (Dalé), Martha Archuleta (Donald) and Barbara Gray all of Shenandoah; 5 grandchildren; brother Albert Loftis (Conny) of Shenandoah; sister Connie Glasco of Red Oak; aunt Mary Squires (Art) of Shenandoah; other family and friends.