Tammy S. Moore

Tammy Sue (Mather) Moore, the eighth child of ten born to Virgil Everet and June Avis (Powell) Mather, was born on September 2, 1959 in Fairfax, Missouri. She entered into eternal rest on Friday morning, May 6, 2016 surrounded by her family at her home in Shenandoah, Iowa following a courageous battle with cancer at the age of 56.

Growing up, her family lived in Tarkio, Missouri, where she received her education in the Tarkio Community School System. Tammy was married to Rick Richardson in 1975 and they were married until 1981. To this union, two children, Tonya and Kelly were born. On Valentine's Day, 1986, Tammy was united in marriage to Duane Lee Moore in Westboro, Missouri. Tammy was so pleased to be able to celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary this past Valentine's Day. Following their marriage they lived in Olathe, Kansas before settling in Shenandoah.

Over the years, Tammy worked a variety of jobs including the Missouri Beef Packers, waitressing at several restaurants, White's Auto Parts, Price Choppers, K-Mart, The Depot Deli and also worked as a caregiver and housekeeper for several people.

In her spare time, Tammy enjoyed browsing garage sales, collecting butterflies and Norman Rockwell Plates and decorating her home. More than anything, she loved spending time with her grandchildren. Tammy was especially proud of her 30 years of marriage to Duane. While living in Olathe, Duane shared his love of Jazz music, which became a passion for both of them.
