

Franklin Bryon Rohrer

Franklin Byron "Butch" Rohrer, son of Clarence and Harriett Louise Shuffler Rohrer, was born on October 16, 1944, in Council Bluffs, Iowa. He attended schools and lived his entire life in Shenandoah. On September 27, 1964, he was united in marriage with Constance Mae Joslyn in Shenandoah. He was employed with Mount Arbor Nursery, A. M. Cohron Inc., and an over the road truck driver for nineteen years. Franklin enjoyed fishing, camping and stock car races.

He was preceded in death by his father, mother, a brother and a daughter. Franklin is survived by his wife Connie Rohrer, his son, Byron Rohrer and his wife Mamie of Shenandoah, a daughter, Melinda Baldwin and her husband Kenny of Villisca, two grandchildren, Miranda and Wyatt of Villisca, his stepfather, Art Turnbull of Shenandoah, a stepsister, Karen Turnbull of Red Oak, Iowa, two stepbrothers, Steven Turnbull and his wife Jody of Arkansas, and Jim Turnbull of Missouri, a brother-in-law Benny Joslyn of Shenandoah and many nieces, nephews and other relatives.