To The Family

Guy Egbert Irvin, Jr. was born on March 21, 1952 in Mt. Ayr, Iowa, the son of Guy Egbert and Marcelene (Booher) Irvin, Sr. Bert entered into eternal peace on Thursday, July 16, 2020 at the Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah, Iowa surrounded by his loving family.

Bert had a fun filled childhood at the family homestead in Athelstan. He enjoyed playing in the creeks, fishing, catching crawdads, frogs and toads with his siblings and cousins. There was always fun to be had when the gang was all together. When Bert was a teenager the family moved to Shenandoah. He graduated from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1971. He later went on to receive a degree in Business Law from Iowa Western Community College in 1984.

Bert held various jobs during his working years. He worked for Mt. Arbor Nursery, the Weekly Times, Mrs. B's Furniture Store, Shenandoah Redemption Center, Nishna Productions and helped at the county farm in Clarinda. Some of his interests included walking, fishing, reading, watching westerns, playing cards, and chatting with the friends he made at Garden View Care Center. Most of all, Bert loved his family. He enjoyed spending as much time as he could with them.

He was welcomed into heaven by his parents; sisters Mary (Booher) Ellison, and Jessie (Irvin) Frohling; step father Charles Binau, Sr., nieces Darla Booher and Debbie (Kier) Gaunt and nephew Jacob Wright.

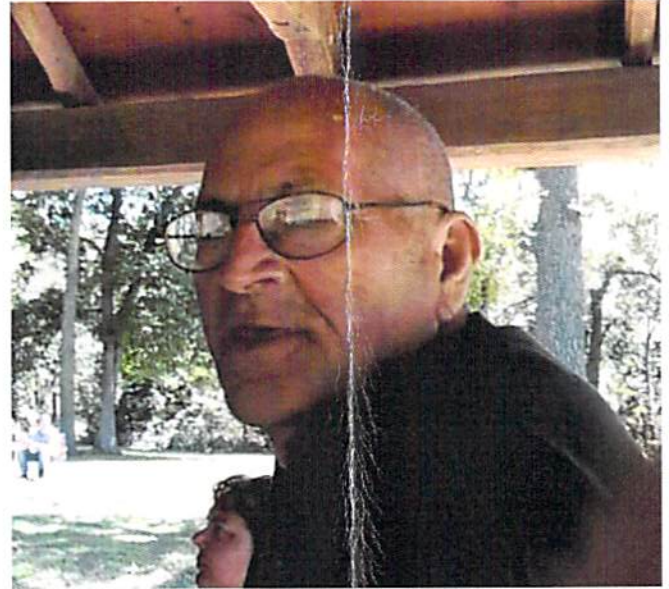

Those left to cherish his memory include his sisters Thelma Binau and Connie Dawson and husband James; brothers Earl Booher and Charles Binau, Jr; 12 nieces, 11 nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

The Fisherman's Prayer

I pray that I may live to fish
Until my dying day.
And when it comes to my last cast,
I then most humbly pray:
When in the Lord's great landing net
And peacefully asleep
That in His mercy I be judged
Big enough to keep.

Please remember to silence your cell phones. Thank-you
