The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Betty Dilley

Elizabeth "Betty" Maxine Dilley, the daughter of George W. and Wilma (Richard) Toliver was born November 10, 1922, in Clio, Iowa, and passed away April 4, 2003, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Growing up in the Clio area, Betty attended grade school in area country schools and high school in Humeson, Iowa, where she graduated in 1940. Betty was working at the Henry Field's Beauty Shop in Shenandoah where she met entertainer, Buck Dilley, who was performing on KFNF Radio. They were married and to this union, one son, Matt was born. After working for several beauty shops around Shenandoah, she opened her own Betty's Beauty Shoppe, which she operated for over 50 years. She also enjoyed her part time job of delivering the rural Sunday newspaper, which she did for several years because she enjoyed meeting the people in the country.

Betty enjoyed playing bridge, bowling, watching soap operas, reading magazines and newspapers and growing flowers, especially African violets. She enjoyed being around young people and would often times assist them with their challenges.

Being active in various organizations and holding offices in many, was Betty's way of helping her community. She belonged to the First United Methodist Church, BPW (Business Professional Women), Amvets, board member of West Page Improvement Center, American Legion Auxiliary, VFW Auxiliary, Charter member of Shenandoah Eagles Club, Shenandoah Chamber of Commerce, NFIB (National Federation of Independent Businesses) and the Over 60 Bridge Club.

Betty was known to be an independent person leading her own life but caring for others, often times placing the needs of others over her own. She was known for her famous "one liners" and was a strong willed person confident of her convictions. When she became a friend, she was a friend for life.

Preceding Betty in death were her parents; husband Buck Dilley in 1983; and brother, Richard Toliver.

Survivors include her son, Matt Dilley and Simone of Salinas, California; grandson, Jacob Benedict and wife, Julie, of Iowa City, Iowa; granddaughter, Amy McGargill of Shenandoah; great grandson, Nick McGargill, of Shenandoah. Also surviving is her sister, Helen Osborne, and nephew, Gary Osborne and wife, Marilyn, all of Clio; plus other relatives and friends.
